

Sonic Fulfillment

Brand Guidelines & Standards

What We Do: Fast, reliable 3PL fulfillment for eCommerce & Shopify businesses

Who We Serve: Small to mid-market companies ($100K - $10M+ revenue)

Coverage: Southern California based, nationwide shipping (UPS, USPS, FedEx, etc.)

Promise: Professional pricing, transparent operations, trusted fulfillment partners

Color Palette

Our sophisticated color system combines deep navy blue with elegant gold accents, projecting professionalism, trust, and premium quality for mid-market business partners.

Color Philosophy: Navy blue represents stability, professionalism, and trust—essential qualities for a fulfillment partner. Gold accents add sophistication, premium positioning, and highlight key elements. Together, they create a premium yet approachable brand identity.

Clear & Direct

"Transparent pricing. No surprises. Just premium fulfillment services that scale with you."

Confident & Reassuring

"With UPS, USPS, and FedEx partnerships, we deliver your orders reliably, every time."

Solution-Focused

"Let's build a fulfillment partnership that grows with your business."

Do's & Don'ts

✓ DO

- ✓ Use Navy Deep (#001f3f) for primary headers and key elements
- ✓ Use Gold (#d4af37) sparingly for premium accents and CTAs
- ✓ Pair Navy + Gold for maximum impact and sophistication
- ✓ Maintain clear space around logos and brand elements
- ✓ Communicate with clarity and confidence
- ✓ Emphasize reliability, speed, and premium quality
- ✓ Use white backgrounds to showcase Navy & Gold colors

✗ DON'T

- ✗ Do not use lighter blue shades—stay with Navy Deep or Navy Medium
- ✗ Do not overuse Gold—it's an accent, not a primary color
- ✗ Do not alter logo proportions or apply effects
- ✗ Do not make misleading promises about pricing or capabilities
- ✗ Do not use casual tone in business communications
- ✗ Do not pair Navy with clashing bright colors
- ✗ Do not reverse colors without ensuring sufficient contrast
